Some Reminders for Parents...

- Children under the age of 10 should not be left alone in the library during the discussion. Children over the age of 10 should always know how to reach a parent in case of emergency.
- Parents should always choose a meeting location for pick-up after the discussion has finished.
- Discussions begin at 7 p.m. and have no definite ending time. They are often one hour, but can run longer or shorter, depending on the discussion.
