

Lucky Night for the Library

March Casino Night Gala draws a crowd!

We had another lucky night of celebration, with our second Casino Night fund raiser held at Fenway Golf Club. Last year, we were grateful that so many came out as a way to support our Capital Campaign. We remain thrilled that this year Scarsdale continued its robust support for the Friends, so we can enrich Library offerings. My sincere thanks to gala co-chairs, Anne George, Wendy Kleinman and Gabrielle Wise, for their dedication and hard work. I am so appreciative of all the wonderful members of the FOSL Board for their tireless commitment to our library. Their creativity and enthusiasm are inspiring. I would also like to express my tremendous gratitude to Diane Greenwald for her extraordinary leadership and vision as the Library Board President for the last two years. She has been instrumental in helping to oversee every aspect of the transformation of our beloved library.

Moving forward, FOSL has much in the works, including organizing a new summer read-a-thon (see details inside), and we are planning a winter Spelling Bee. Yes, the Bee is coming back! (Stay tuned for details in the Fall BookMarks.) Stop by our table at the Golden Horseshoe sidewalk sale June 13th to 15th where you can purchase some fabulous FOSL merchandise and participate in a raffle to win some great prizes.

Lastly, thank you to this community whose commitment to supporting our library and its goal of lifelong learning has been unwavering. If you are not already, please consider becoming a friend of the library at: <https://www.scarsdalelibrary.org/friends/>

Update from Library Director

Last month, I had the opportunity to attend a 3-day class, "Library Leadership in a Digital Age," at the Harvard University Graduate School of Education. I stepped out of my day-to-day efforts to gain a broader perspective. Since returning, I have been reflecting on the class, what I learned, and how to apply this knowledge so that it benefits the Scarsdale community.

We tackled big questions like: what will learning look like in the next decade? What support will the community need to access quality information and what role can the library play as digital media takes on a larger role in society? What opportunities exist for libraries to become facilitators of intellectual community in new and innovative ways? What impact will artificial intelligence and virtual reality have on libraries? How do leaders embrace change and make it manageable for our community?

While the presenters spoke on a variety of topics, common threads emerged: constant and rapid change, innovation, emergent technology, and "equity, diversity and inclusion" (EDI). I have been considering these issues for a long time, especially in relation to building our library for the 21st century, now under construction. Enhancing flexibility, improving technology and increasing access have all been important aspects of our building transformation.

Though much of the class focused on uncertainty, I feel we are on the right track by exercising a willingness to adapt. Student learning grows more self-directed but also more collaborative, and adult work life becomes increasingly independent, less site-specific. Technology is ubiquitous but personal interaction remains important, and trends show that places promoting human connection are more valuable than ever. Libraries create opportunities for patrons to learn, experiment, and share ideas, all ways to support people through change. At the Scarsdale Library, our new space will allow us to remain a central hub of lifelong learning, whatever the future brings. We are now embarking on a Strategic Plan and I am excited to use this and other learning to ensure SPL has something for everyone!

Updates

Website Refresh!

New Look + Improved Navigation

Our digital home has gotten a renovation, too! It's been several years since we last updated our website, and it's definitely time for an update. We are excited to launch this new site that looks great and works better.

Here are a few of the improved features:

- The site is fully responsive. It will look good—and be easy to use—on all your various electronic devices, including your phone.
- The navigation is simplified, with direct links to the pages you most use. Finding your way around the site should be easy from the start. It's intuitive.
- We kept the good stuff from the old site too—or at least we think we did—so if you used the prior site the new one should be a piece of cake.
- The Library rebranded, including a modern logo. The website's design elements, fonts, and color scheme promote the welcoming, clear look of the Library.

As we launch, you can easily share reactions, or make suggestions. There's a pop-up box when you sign on that allows you to communicate directly with us.

Special thanks to Communications Committee leaders, Elyse Klayman and Felicia Block, for their exceptional work in support of the website redesign.

Board News

Update from Library Board

It's been another remarkable year of transition! Under Beth's guidance, and together with so many dedicated volunteers, generous donors, capable professionals, and patient patrons, we have made progress toward our goals. The Library secured full funding for our improvement project from a public-private partnership. We navigated construction contracts and moved out of the Olmsted Road building (and that was a Herculean feat!) We opened our temporary space at Library Loft @ Supply Field and arranged off-site spaces for many popular programs. We began the construction at the Olmsted Road building, provided documentation of our progress, and selected a furniture/interiors package. Meanwhile, we redesigned the website (our digital location,) and began work to renew the strategic plan. We are proud of our progress, but there is much work ahead.

The Strategic Planning Committee, chaired by Margot Milberg, starts in earnest to envision and define what the Library can be in the future. Also this year, the Library Board revised our by-laws, resulting in the addition of two new Board seats (can you blame us?) Many thanks to the By-laws Committee, chaired by Felicia Block. I am thrilled to announce the incoming leadership:

Incoming 2019-20 Library Board:

Elyse Klayman, President

Margot Milberg, Vice President (President-Elect)

Gary Katz, Finance Officer

Diane Greenwald, Secretary

Felicia Block, Trustee

Deb Morel, Trustee

Alan Bey, Trustee

Svati Shashank, Trustee

Laura Lui, Trustee

Our entire Board knows how important the Library is to you, and we are grateful for the trust this community has placed in us. Personally, I feel so lucky to serve with such a talented, dedicated team and look forward to another great year ahead, in service to the Library, our central source of learning and connection!

A Lucky Night to Remember

CASINO NIGHT

Color Your Night Lucky!

Progress is being made at Olmsted Road! The foundation was poured for the addition of the glass-wrapped reading gallery that will connect patrons to the beautiful surrounding park. We are underway with bid packages for purchasing the new furniture and book shelves. We are also working with the Village Cable Commission, identifying AV equipment that will enhance media capabilities.

Over the next months, we will begin planning for food service concession and developing building and donor signage, and of course, we are always providing oversight of the construction. Every day brings challenges, but we remain on track to be back into our renovated space in summer 2020!

Imagine this construction will become this reading gallery!

Several groups of Library stakeholders have enjoyed hard-hat tours of the construction site, including members of the Library Board, staff + Building Committee; the Village Trustees; the FOSL Board of Directors; and members of the Campaign Committee.
